The Physicians Practice S.O.S. Group CEO Regina Mixon Bates named one of the 2012 Honorees of Who's Who in Black Atlanta

Leader in Medical Practice Management and Education has been named one of the 2012 Honorees of Who's Who in Black Atlanta

[ATLANTA, GA] The Physicians Practice S.O.S. Group Seminars and Office Solutions® is pleased to announce that CEO, Regina Mixon Bates will be honored by Who's Who in Black Atlanta on November 28, 2012. This award is being presented at the 2012 Who's Who Banquet in Atlanta, GA. For over 20 years Bates has supported the growth and development of countless physicians practices across throughout the United States. The firm has grown over the years to include the following services: Practice Management and Assessments Services, New Practice Start/Set Up Services, Baseline Chart Audits, One-On-One Physician Training/Education, Insurance Contracting Services, Physician and Midlevel Nationwide Placements, HIPAA, OSHA & OIG Compliance Documentation, Planning and Implementation and IRO Services (Government Approved Independent Review Organization). Education for office staff is comprehensive and includes CEU approved specialty seminars, webinars, and workshops in CPT® ICD-9, ICD-10 and HCPCS coding. Certification courses are available throughout the year in coding, compliance and practice management.

"We are happy that our ongoing work to grow physicians' practices and educate their employees is being recognized by Who's Who," stated Regina Mixon Bates, CEO, The Physicians Practice S.O.S. Group Seminars and Office Solutions®. "I am pleased and honored to be a 2012 Who's Who Award recipient and I look forward to accepting on behalf of the firm." In addition to Bates, other top executives and business professional will also receive awards. Each year Who's Who recognizes and celebrates the achievements of African Americans in Atlanta and to provide a valuable resource and networking guide for the community. Who's Who Publishing Company directories are published annually in more than 25 cities across the country. The top-quality publications feature pictures and biographical data on a significant number of distinguished African-American leaders from various career disciplines and serve to record, inspire, and memorialize the next chapter of our history.

The Physicians Practice SOS. Group recently opened a new office that includes onsite training space and they launched a franchise program in various states. "The franchise program is the culmination of over 20 years in the industry and our commitment to helping physicians and their staffs achieve excellence," stated Regina Mixon Bates. In recent years, the ever-changing healthcare laws have increased the need for practices to be educated, certified and prepared for state and federal audits. This trend will continue and therefore, a business opportunity exists for entrepreneurial-minded individuals to open a Physicians Practice S.O.S. Group franchise business in a number of states across the U.S. For more information on seminars and office solutions, or to speak to a representative today about franchise opportunities, visit www.ppsosgroup.com.
